A Shrewd Old Man On His Travels.

An old man, carrying a corpulent satchel, disembarked from the steamer City of Cleveland one morning this week, and started on his way up town. At the corner of Water street a young man in glasses rushed up to him, seized him by the arm, and exclaimed:

"Ah, my dear Dampkins, what an unexpected meeting!"

"Very unexpected, very," said the old man, wearily. "But my name is Sigby, John K. Sigby, of Bucyrus, O."

"A thousand pardons," said the stranger, very much mortified. "You are the very picture of him. What a misfortune to be so near-sighted!"

"Don't mention it," replied the old man, adding to himself, as the spectacled gentleman disappeared around the corner, "Same old game."

At the corner of Water and Superior streets a clerical looking gentleman, with side whiskers, grasped his hand warmly and exclaimed:

"Is it possible? My old friend Sigby, of Bucyrus. It must be!"

"The very same," replied the old man, "and you—why, you are Sam Jimson, son as guns, and the old man, setting down his satchel, slapped him on the back, and requested to publish these proceedings.

The resolutions were adopted and motion of A. P. Simpson the meeting adjourned.

Railroad Meeting in Russell,

At a meeting of the citizens of Russell county, held at the court house in Jamestown on Wednesday the 15th day of Sept., 1886, W. D. Wolford was selected chairman and Samuel A. Gann secretary. The object of the meeting was briefly explained by Hon. A. P. Simpson to be the encouragement of the construction by any company incorporated for that purpose of a railway through our county.

On motion of A. P. Simpson Dr. Thomas Gann, Green Eastham, J. A. Williams, Jackson Coffey and J. E. Hays were appointed a committee on resolutions, who made the following report:

Resolved, That we approve of the call and request to the people of Russell county to hold this meeting at this time.

That the people of Russell county greatly desire the construction of a railway through this territory.

That they will give aid and help to any such enterprise by donating the right-of-way over their domain and we believe that many citizens of the county would donate timber to aid such an enterprise.

Resolved, That we approve of the call and request to the people of Russell county to hold this meeting at this time.

RELIGIOUS.

The churches here now begin night services at 7 o'clock.

Will Barnes, son of the evangelist, presided at Central Gospel Mission, Louisville, Sunday.

The Reporter says 160 persons have united with the M. E. Church of Somerset circuit during this conference year.

Sam Jones Tabernacle, Cartersville, Ga., was dedicated last Sunday. It was a gift from the Evangelist to his native town.

Gen. Booth, of the Salvation Army, has left London for the United States, to take command of the Army here, notwithstanding we have already a sufficient number of recruits.

Rev. E. B. Head, a Methodist minister residing at Bedford, Trimble county, who was taken ill while attending the Kentucky Conference, held at Winchester last week, died at that place Friday.

An important convention of the Protestant Episcopal church of America will be held in Chicago, beginning October 6. The convention will consist of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies, the latter composed of 412 delegates. The Bishops are sixty-five in number, and will be presided over by Bishop Alfred Lee, of Delaware, the oldest member in consecration.

So much interest is expressed in the cures of fevers, bruises, etc., effected by means of woolen smoke, that we give the record of a fresh case. Last Sunday a little child of five years old fell from some high place upon his face, and struck three upper teeth entirely through the upper lip. They had to be extracted, but the agony of the wound was fearful. His mother left him in some one's care and went out to do her washing on Monday. She was told of the smoke cure, and when she went back on Monday evening applied it to the child. She took the precaution to put a cent upon the hole in the inverted flower pot, that she might regulate the smoke, and, guarding his nose and mouth from inhaling it, applied it to the wounded lip and the violently concussed jaw. In ten minutes the pain was much relieved. In an hour the child seemed as well as ever, except the mouth was sore, and he could only drink, not eat. —[Boston Transcript.]

Scientists are astonished at the remarkable phenomena of nature which have rendered this year in some respects unique. In one portion of British India 600 inches of rain have fallen in the last twelve months, while an agricultural region in Texas of 150,000 square miles has had scarcely one-eighth of an inch in one year. Sudden and striking changes in barometric pressure and in temperature are reported both in Europe and America. An earthquake the like of which the country has not known since history first began its records here has brought destruction and despair to a portion of our people. And it was snowing the other day in Montana, Altogether A. D. 1886 will be remembered.

Three sailors who went fishing from the port of Dunkirk, in France, in the year 1869, have just returned. Seventeen years is a long time to catch fish in, and one might suppose that the sailors returned laden with wealth, but such is not the case. They say that their vessel was wrecked on the coast of Greenland, and that they were held in captivity by the natives. Not only did they bring nothing in the way of material treasure from that land, but in Dunkirk they find themselves poorer by the loss of their wives, all of whom have married again. They are three pretty forlorn sailor men. To be sure, they are a nine days' wonder in the little French town; but there are no dime museums in Dunkirk, and to be an object of curiosity there is not so profitable as it is here in our east side wards.

I note that parchment paper, blue ink and blotting sand are now all the rage with that class of my correspondents who write a large, scared-to-death hand and spell "ever" with two 'e's and "weather" with out an 'a'. I have frequently observed that people who are faultless in their style of "stationery" are not infrequently liable to spell by ear. —[R. J. Burdette.]

Young man, never loose your presence of mind when you are in a trying situation. When you take the girl to the picnic, and you wander away together to commune with nature, and she suddenly exclaims, "Oh, George, there is an ant down my back!" don't stand still with your mouth open; don't faint; don't go for the girl's mother, but go for the ant.

On the sandy shore of the swelling tide strides many a fair and expectant bride; on pebbly beach and on silvery strands wander the youths who would seek those hands. A year rolls by, and the tides still crash on the silvery sands with ceaseless dash, but the maids and youths heed not their course as they think how much it costs to divorce.

Temperance puts wood on the fire, meat in the barrel, flour in the tub, money in the purse, credit in the country, vigor in the body, contentment in the house, clothes on the hairs, intelligence in the brain and spirit in the constitution.

A peach of the late Crawford variety, weighing 14 ounces and measuring 11½ inches in circumference, raised at Vacalle, Cal., is on exhibition at Sir. Francisco.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL INSTITUTE.

(To the Editor of the Interior Journal.)

A precinct Sunday-School Institute, under the auspices of the Lincoln County Sunday School Union, was held at Bush Branch Church, two miles from Stanford, on last Saturday, Sept. 18, the sessions continuing throughout the day and evening.

A good attendance of Sunday-school workers and citizens, with a practical program, well carried out, made the occasion pleasant and instructive.

Such subjects as "Wanted, greater earnestness in the Sunday school work;" "Co-operation of parents;" and "Music in the Sunday-school" were presented at the morning session, addresses being made and exercises conducted by Dr. S. E. Wishard, of Danville; Mr. E. B. Bassley and S. F. Wishard.

The dinner, which was a special feature of the day and program, was discussed by everybody, a la picnic.

At the afternoon session live, stirring music and plenty of it, interspersed the presentation of the subjects, "Teachers' meetings," by Dr. Wishard; "How to teach a lesson," by Mr. W. F. McClary; addresses on different phases of Sunday-school work, by Messrs. R. E. Birrell, Dr. G. A. Traylor, R. L. Porter, of Lincoln, and Mr. Jas. McClure, of Colorado.

At night Eld. J. Q. Montgomery addressed the Institute "Benefits of the Sunday-school to the Church," which was followed by addresses from various others present.

Mr. E. B. Bassley presided as chairman and W. F. McClary acted as secretary pro tem. A collection of $8.80 was taken for State and county work.

At the character of the work was above the average. The question drawer, in charge of Dr. Wishard, was one of the most interesting features. The music was enjoyed and a spiritual tone pervaded all the exercises. More meetings of this kind would greatly aid the cause in Lincoln county.

The county union should keep up the work so energetically begun by the vice president, Mr. S. E. Owles.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Congress,

JAMES B. MCREEARY.

Of Madison.

THE COURT OF APPEALS HAS JUST REAFFIRMED A FORMER DECISION THAT DRUNKENNESS IS NO EXCUSE FOR CRIME AND SHOULD NOT MITIGATE THE PUNISHMENT THEREOF. THE CASE UNDER CONSIDERATION WAS THAT OF K. F. BURCHETT WHO SHOT AND KILLED ANGUS IN CARTER COUNTY IN 1884. THE COURT BELOW FIXED THE PUNISHMENT AT IMPRISONMENT FOR LIFE AND JUDGE PRYOR IN DELIVERING THE OPINION OF THE COURT, AFFIRMING THE SENTENCE, SAYS: "THERE IS NO EFFORT AT SELF DEFENSE, AND THE ONLY REASON ASSIGNED FOR THE CRUEL AND RECKLESS MURDER IS THAT AT THE TIME OF THE KILLING THE ACCUSED WAS UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF LIQUOR. THIS IS NO EXCUSE FOR CRIME, AND TO HOLD THAT THE COMMISSION OF ONE WRONGFUL ACT IS AN EXCUSE OR MITIGATION OF A STILL GREATER OFFENSE WOULD BE TO LICENSE THE RECKLESS VIOLATORS OF THE LAW TO SEEK REVENGE IN TAKING THE LIVES OF THOSE WHO HAD INFECTED UPON THEM ACTUAL OR IMAGINARY INJURIES."

OUR ESTEEMED CONTEMPORARY, THE DANVILLE ADVOCATE, HAS OUR GRATITUDE FOR THESE KIND WORDS: DURING THE LATE HEATED CANDIDATE IN LINCOLN, THE INTERIOR JOURNAL DID NOT FAVOR THE PROHIBITION LAW, BECAUSE THE EDITOR WAS NOT CONVINCED THAT IT WOULD ACCOMPLISH THE END FOR WHICH IT WAS INTENDED. BUT WE HAVE REASON TO KNOW THAT THE FRIENDS OF PROHIBITION WILL FIND NO STRONGER ADVOCATE FOR THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAW, NOW THAT IT HAS BEEN ENACTED BY A MAJORITY OF THE PEOPLE, THAN THE EDITOR OF THE INTERIOR JOURNAL. HE HAS FAIRLY "WON HIS SPURS" IN THE PAST AS AN UNCOMPROMISING ADVOCATE OF THE LAW AGAINST ALL VIOLATORS, BIG AND LITTLE, AND HE WILL MAKE IT HOT FOR ANY WHISKY DEALER WHO WILL SET UP TO SELL THE VILE STUFF IN LINCOLN IN OPPOSITION TO THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE, SO DECIDEDLY EXPRESSED AT THE POLLS.

THE ANTI-SALOON REPUBLICANS, WHO MET IN CHICAGO LAST WEEK TO TRIM THEIR SAILS TO THE PROHIBITION BREEZE THAT IS NOW SWEEPING THE COUNTRY, CAVERED MORE THAN THE MOST RAPID PROHIBITIONIST OVER THE EVILS THAT THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC CARRIES IN ITS WAKE, AND DEMANDED THAT THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT SHOULD ABSOLUTELY PROHIBIT THE MANUFACTURE OF INTOXICANTS IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA AND THE TERRITORIES. WHEN IT IS KNOWN THAT NO LIQUORS ARE NOW MANUFACTURED IN THE DISTRICT AND ONLY BY MOONSHINERS IN THE TERRITORIES, IT WILL BE OBSERVED HOW SILLY, THOUGH HIGH SOUNDING, ARE THE DEMANDS. BUT AN ANCHOR MUST BE CAST TO WINDWARD AND THE REPUBLICANS WANT TO DO SO IN TIME.

BRO. DENHAM, OF THE WILLIAMSBURG TIMES, WHOM WE TOOK TO TASK FOR USING UGLY WORDS, ACCEPTS OUR ADVICE IN GOOD PART AND IS ACTUALLY KIND ENOUGH TO ADD, "WE CONSIDER THE INTERIOR JOURNAL ONE OF THE BEST PAPERS IN THE STATE, AND WHEN HIS TEMPERANCE SUBSCRIBERS BREAK HIM DOWN, IF THEY CAN, IT WILL BE MANY A DAY BEFORE LINCOLN COUNTY HAS AS GOOD A PAPER AS HE HAS GIVEN THEM." DENHAM, YOU ARE A GENTLEMAN AND A SCHOLAR AND HAD WE BEEN ALLOWED THE SAY-SO YOU WOULD NOW BE THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS, INSTEAD OF EDITING A PAPER AND REFUTING SLANDERS AGAINST YOUR COUNTY.

THE DANVILLE TRIBUNE MAN IS SHEDDING BITTER, SALTY TEARS BECAUSE MORE REPUBLICANS TAKE OUR PAPER THAN HIS. BECAUSE A PERSON HAPPENS TO BE A REPUBLICAN IS NO REASON THAT HE IS A FOOL. REPUBLICANS KNOW A GOOD THING WHEN THEY SEE IT AND THEY ALWAYS GO WHERE THEY CAN GET THEIR MONEY'S WORTH. OURS IS A NEWSPAPER AND DON'T YOU FORGET IT, CAPTAIN, AND WE DO NOT DEFEND MR. CLEVELAND SIMPLY BECAUSE HE NEEDS NO DEFENSE. HE IS A GREAT AND GOOD MAN, WHOSE ONLY FAULT HAS BEEN THAT HE HAS NOT TURNED THE RASCALS OUT AS FAST AS HE SHOULD AND AS FAST AS WE WOULD HAVE DONE.

THE LONDON LEADER HAVING WEATHERED SUCCESSFULLY THE STORMS OF ITS FIRST ANNUAL VOYAGE, MAY NOW BE CONSIDERED A SEA-WORTHY CRAFT OF THE FIRST CLASS. WE KNOW OF NO PAPER THAT HAS GROWN SO RAPIDLY IN THE GRACES OF THE PUBLIC, NOR ONE THAT IS NOURISHED BY STRONGER AND BETTER DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES. MAY IT CONTINUE TO GROW AND PROSPER.

THE CALIFORNIA DEMOCRATS DO NOT MINCE MATTERS. IN CONVENTION ASSEMBLED THEY RESOLVED THAT THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA DEMANDS THE REMOVAL OF EVERY REPUBLICAN NOW IN OFFICE BY APPOINTMENT, EXCEPT THOSE HOLDING UNDER CIVIL SERVICE REFORM, AND THAT DEMOCRATS BE APPOINTED IN THEIR PLACES.

POLK LAFFOON DOWNDEN MCKENZIE, ADASIR AND ELLIS FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION IN THE SECOND DISTRICT WITH ALL THE EASE IMAGINABLE. UREY WOODSON, OF THE OWENSBOURG MESSENGER, LIKE OURSELVES, POOR FELLOW, SEEMS TO BE PLAYING IN BAD JACK THIS SEASON.

JUDGE MORTON, OF LEXINGTON, HAS DECLINED TO BE A CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR, WHICH REMINDS US OF WHAT THE PRETTY MAID SAID TO THE IMPERTINENT YOUNG FELLOW: "NOBODY HAS ASKED YOU, SIR," SHE SAID.

LYNCH O'CONNER, AN EX-POLICEMAN AT LEXINGTON, WAS SHOT AND INSTANTLY KILLED BY HIS FRIEND, LUTE FOGLE, A GAMBLER AND LOAFER, OVER A GAME OF CARDS SATURDAY. O'CONNER HAD KILLED HIS MAN AND THE SCALPS OF TWO MEN NOW DANGLE TO FOGLE'S BELT. THEY WERE A BAD PAIR AND WILL ONLY BE MISSED FOR THEIR DOLILITY.

that concern to get five times as much from this locality.

If you want a Feed Cutter, buy the old reliable Dexter. It is the best cutter in the market for either hand or power. Metcalfe & Foster.

HARRY WEBBER comes on rather short notice, but he is a favorite here and never fails to draw full houses. Procure a ticket of McRoberts & Stagg and take three meals and a luncheon with him to-morrow night, 22d.

THE examining trial of W. H. Murphy for cutting George Carter was called yesterday and continued till next Tuesday, 28th. Carter is getting along finely and will soon be out, unless something unfor-seen happens.

A MAN, whom the Rev. S. S. McRoberts married 20 years ago, called on him the other day to say that he had not forgotten that he owed him for performing the ceremony. Mr. McRoberts had forgotten the circumstance and he had rather good the money now than to hear talk of it.

THE gratifying information reaches us that notwithstanding he has treated hundreds of patients suffering with the prevailing disease of flux, our former townsmen, Dr. O. H. McRoberts, has not lost a single one by death. There have been perhaps 100 deaths in Casey county from the disease, but not one can be counted against Dr. McRoberts.

ONE of our young physicians was called in by a mother who had a sick child the other day, and he entered the house with all the importance of a young saw-bones, who is anxious to distinguish himself in his profession. Imagine his fall of countenance when after a minute's examination and the usual interrogations the good lady inquired, "Do you think it is worth while to send for a doctor?" The answer that came from the young man is not reported, but you can bet he thought a good deal if he didn't express himself.

AN OUTRAGE.—Saturday, as J. Wolf, an incisive German, who peddles tinware, was going along the public highway, he was assaulted, he says, by Gus Gill, an engineer on the L & N., who after accusing him of murder and cursing and ill-using him, took his tinware and left with it. Wolf came to town and swore out a warrant before Judge Carson and it was placed in Marshal New-land's hands for service. The officer found that Gill had slipped off on a freight train and he followed him as far as Shelby City, where Gill jumped from the train and running caught up with the forward section and boarded it. Newland was not to be outdone, however, so he telegraphed the Chief of Police at Louisville to arrest Gill for a felonious offense and he was nabbed on his arrival and brought back here for trial yesterday.

ST. SALVADOR.—In company with a friend we enjoyed a drive to the pretty little village of Otenheim, Sunday, to witness the dedication of the handsome Catholic church, the first of the kind in the county.
The weather was pleasant, and we found the road, after leaving the pike, one of the best we have ever seen of the kind. This road, together with that from Crab Orchard to Otenheim and beyond, in all some 12 or 15 miles, was built by Mr. J.
Otteneheimer, of the Lincoln Land Company, at a cost of some $4,000. He did it on his own motion, but it has been and will be of great value to the county and it would be nothing more fair for the Court to allow him at least a part of the cost. Arriving at Otenheim, we were surprised to find a neat little village, containing besides the building to be dedicated, a nice little Lutheran church, a general supply store, kept by our friend, Mr. J. L. Slavin, the coziest little hotel and numerous other houses. It is the centre of the thriving German colonists and is destined to become a town of considerable importance. The colonists are all thrifty-looking people and seem to be doing well in their new homes.
The church has been built by their contributions and it is a handsome little house of worship, both inside and out. The altar and chancel are beautifully arranged and the furniture throughout neat and appropriate.
Rev. Bishop McCloud assisted by Father Ludger Beck and Father John of St. Mary's College, officiated, a portion of the service being in Latin and the sermon in German. After the services, which were very impressive, the colonists and their friends enjoyed a basket dinner in the pretty grove, while Mr. Otteneheimer entertained the clergymen and others at the hotel, where a very tempting and excellent repast was spread. Among the visitors were Prof. Hemmersbach, of St. Mary's College, F. A. Fellner, of the State Bureau of Emigration, Louis Newhaus, of the Louisville Glaubensbote, and Ed Merckel, of the Cincinnati Wahrheitsfreund.
Besides many people from the neighborhood, a large crowd was present from Crab Orchard and a number from Stanford, and the day was very pleasantly and profitably spent.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP

The Latonia Races begin Oct. 1 and last 13 days.

Strayed from my farm a Red Bull and a roan and spotted calf, J. E. Bruce.

Mr. G. B. Barnett has rented the Men-fee farm, lately occupied by Major King.

Smith Burgham sold to John Pep-ples a fine pair of 2-year old mare mules for $320.

We hear of several contracts to fatten hogs at 3½c per pound. With corn as plentiful as it is, some money can be made at it.

FOR SALE—A No. 1 milk cow, with a right young calf; gives 6 gallons of milk per day. Inquire of S. C. Helm or R. G.
Craig.

Our young friend Chas. T. Sandidge seems to have monopolized the premiums at the Somerset Fair. He took five blue ribbons in one day on his five horses.

Mr. B. W. Gaines, who has been living on Dr. Givens' Helms farm for years, has rented the Leo Hayden farm of Col. Welch and will remove thither in a short time.

Brinkley, Catron & Co. sold last week 300 sheep to a gentleman of Madison country at $2.10 per head. They bought 30 mule colts at $62 per head; also 20 yearlings at from $60 to $120. [Somerset Reporter.

VANILLA flavored Peerless Syrup, finest in town, at Waters & Wearens.

It is sad but true. The circus gives us the go-by and shows at Crab Orchard instead, next Monday.

LITTLE LENA, daughter of Mr. Peter Hamton, fell down the steps of his house, Friday, and crushed her elbow.

THE handsomest stock of Dry Goods, Notions, &c., ever brought to this market are being opened this week by Owseay & Craig.

CLAIMS against the county must be filed by the 24th, instead of the 25th, as stated in our last issue. Ten days before is the order.

A CHARMING letter from Rev. George O.
Barnes was handed us yesterday, but owing to the fact that our forms were about full, we had to defer its publication till Friday.

THE heavy fall of temperature predicted for the equinox did not materialize here, though the storm of Sunday night left the air chilly enough yesterday morning to make fires comfortable.

IN "Our Boarding House" Wednesday night Harry Webber appears "Gregarius Gillipod, Esq." and will make enough fun to excite the risible of a cynical despotic.
You will see him, of course.

NEW GOODS.—We are opening this week a very large and handsome assortment of Dry Goods, consisting of every thing in the Domestic and fancy goods line. Also a large line of Novelties, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. Owseay & Craig

Will Hays has bought Ike Dunn's farm of 200 acres near Camp Dick Robinson at $40.

Ham Healey, of Boyle, sold to Pennsylvania parties 45 head of 2-year-old, 16-hand mules at $160.

J. M. Keras and J. G. Gibbons, of Clinton, passed through town last week from Lincoln, where they had bought 25 mule colts at $50 each. [Monticello Signal.

Mr. S. L. Withers has a splendid crop of corn. A couple of ears, taken almost at random, weighed 5 pounds and measured 12 and 13 inches respectively. They are of the white variety, known as the "Hood," and he will dispose of some of it for seed.

Yesterday was a fine day and many people were drawn to the Danville Court, There were some 200 cattle on the market, and sold at from $3 to 4 cents. A good many saddle horses were sold at from $125 to $190. Pug horses $80 to $100; mules from $80 to $160.

J. E. & J. R. Farris took two premiums on Silver King at the Somerset Fair, one in the model and the other in the 3 year-old saddle stallion ring; one on Mollie Mounce, dam of Silver King, best brood mare any age; and one on Birdie, full sister to Silver King, fancy saddle colt. Mr. Farris also showed Miss Alma Hays' Fleetwood, which took the premium in the racking ring, half mile heat; best heat 1:25, equal to 2:50, which is two seconds better than any racking on record. The start was from a stand still.
